The Further Adventures Of The Owl And The Pussycat

This visual resource is for children and adults visiting Royal & Derngate to see a performance of The Further Adventures Of The Owl And The Pussycat. This visual story is intended to help prepare you for a new experience and help you to become familiar with the surroundings and the performance.

Welcome to Royal & Derngate. This is what the building looks like from the outside. This is the main entrance of the theatre.

The words and pictures on the windows and walls tell you what shows are happening inside.

When you enter through the front door, you will see a big space with lots of stairs, tables and chairs in an area called the Foyer.

The Box Office is also in the Foyer. It looks like this.

This is where you can buy tickets or collect tickets that you have already paid for. There may be other adults and children waiting to buy or collect tickets when you arrive.

You will be met by one of the ushers, who will be wearing a black shirt with white writing like the ones above. You can ask an usher if you have any questions and they will do their best to help you. When it's time for Peter Pan to start, an usher will tell you where you need to go. You might see some adults and children sitting at some of the tables having something to eat or drink from our Theatre shop or bars.

There are bars in the Foyer where you can buy drinks and snacks. The main bar looks like this. You can also bring your own drinks and snacks with you.

There is also a stall selling merchandise, which looks like this.

If you need to use the toilet, there are toilets on every level of the building. The toilet doors look like this:

The disabled toilet doors look like this:
